News

1. Publication of The Journal of The Japan Psychoanalytic Society, vol. 3

In June 2021, the volume 3 of our electric journal The Journal of the Japan Psychoanalytic Society was successfully published. This volume includes five theoretical and clinical papers by JPS members. We hope this journal will be a valuable contribution to the international psychoanalytic community.

2. Japanese Translations of IPA Inter-Regional Encyclopedic Dictionary of Psychoanalysis

Three entries in IPA Inter-Regional Encyclopedic Dictionary of Psychoanalysis have been translated into Japanese, which were then published on the IPA website. These entries included amae, containment: container-contained, and countertransference. We hope to continue to add translations of more entries.

3. New full member

Dr. Takashi Okudera was approved as a full member of JPS at the Annual Meeting in June, 2021, as was recommended by JPS Training Committee.

4. New associate members

Dr. Takahiro Kato was approved as an associate member of JPS at the Annual Meeting in June, 2021, as was recommended by JPS Training Committee.

5. New candidate

We welcome Dr. Koji Toyokawa as a new candidate of JPS.

6. New psychoanalytic psychotherapy trainees

We welcome Ms. Akiko Nakamura, Ms. Reiko Hosaka, Ms. Izumi Kurosaki, and Dr. Miyuki Kaji as psychoanalytic psychotherapy trainees of JPS.

At present, the JPS has six honorary members, twenty full members, fifteen associate members and thirty candidates.
